Co-Parenting Resolution Training

Effective Preparation for Co-Parenting in Georgia

For Parents

Co-Parenting Training will help you prepare to effectively parent after divorce and separation. Whether you mediate, go to trial, work with an attorney or represent yourself, we can help you understand the issues.

For Legal Professionals

Effective January 1, 2008, parenting plans are required in all custody cases. Every year there are more forms to complete. The Institute will train legal professionals to help clients prepare a co-parenting plan. Consider sending your clients to the workshop to prepare a plan for your review.

For Mediators & Court Personnel

This training program will keep you up-to-date on Georgia's new parenting plan requirements and help you facilitate effective resolution of issues facing parents after divorce or separation.

What You Will Receive

You will receive a registration packet with the Institute's Training Manual and sample forms. When you complete the live session or self-study course, you will receive a Certificate of Completion from the Institute.

Upcoming Live Sessions

Gainesville Civic Center, April 17, 2008
Cobb Mediation in Marietta, June 26, 2008

Self-Study Option

Receive an audio CD set of the Institute presentations, the Training Manual and sample forms with step-by-step instructions.
